Dear Mr Sample

Important - changes to your Direct Debit information

We're writing to let you know that there will be a very small change to your Direct Debit with us. When you take a look at your next bank statement, you may notice a different name on it.

By now, you've probably heard that we're bringing ntl, Telewest, Virgin.net and Virgin Mobile together to form a brand new company. It'll be called Virgin Media. The division of the Virgin Media Group serving business customers will continue to be known as ntl:Telewest Business.

So what does this mean? Well, your account and services will work in exactly the same way, including all the benefits of paying by Direct Debit - so nothing will change there. But from 14 February, you may notice that Virgin Media Payments Ltd will collect your Direct Debit, so this new name may appear on your bank statement.

We'll take care of notifying your bank about the changes, so you don't need to complete a new Direct Debit instruction. Your bank may contact you directly to let you know about this change. You may also see a comment on your bank statement advising you of the final payment under the old name and the first payment under the new name. But again, there's nothing you need to do.

You'll also continue to be protected by the Direct Debit Guarantee. We've included it below, so take a look to remind yourself how it works.

If you have any questions, please call us on 0800 953 1800.

Yours faithfully

Liz Lunn
Head of Business Customer Services
ntl:Telewest Business
